

Index

- Academic leadership, 475
- Adaptive structuration theory (AST), 168
- Agentic leadership styles, 30
- Arts-based leadership, 407
- Authority, 142

- Behavioral styles, 5
- Board of directors, 121–127
- Business culture, 434
- Business startups, 157

- Canon law, 345, 370
- Centralization, 142
- CEOs, high technology industries, 165
- Chain of command, 142
- Church leadership, 345
- Civil and political rights, 62
- Civil rights, 66
- Civil Rights Act of 1964, 261
- Classical organization theory, 142
- Cognitive traits, 5
- Computer mediated communication (CMC), 176

- Contemporary leadership theory, 57
- Context, 14–20
- Contextual expertise, 14
- Contextual intelligence, 12, 13
- Conventional leadership theories, 16
- Corporate chaplains, 352
- Corporate leaders, 223
- Credible media, 213–214
- Critical mass theory, 124, 125
 - in gender and politics, 79
- Cross-cultural leadership, 423–429
- Crowdfunding, 156
- C-suite executives, 169
- Cultural intelligence (CI), 422
- Cyberpower, 179

- Decision-making, 15
- Decision making, 143
- Deficit communality theory, 32
- Degree of diversity, 431
- Democratic movement, 434
- Discrimination against female scientists and engineers, 397

- Division of labor, 142
- Divorce laws, 52, 63
- Dynamic and strategic leadership skills, 85
- Economic crisis, 468
- Economic power, 463
- Effective leadership, 97, 98, 105
- E-leadership, 168–172
- Election campaign (2016), 104
- Electronic meeting system (EMS), 171
- Entrepreneurship, 152
- Equal rights for women, 443
- Equal rights, principle of, 62
- Executive power, 433
- Executive women, 138
- Exemplification, 105
- Faith-at-work, 352
- Female athletes, 269
- Female athletic directors, 298–300
- Female coaches as sports leaders, 293–298
- Female director, 230
- Female entrepreneurs, 153
- Female executives, 148
- Female politicians
 - career progress, 99
 - political campaigns, 94
 - role of, 87
 - self-presentation skills, 102
 - types of IM tactics, 107
- Female priests, 345
- Female qualities of, relationship, 27
- Female religious leaders, 344, 360–377
- Female science leaders, 394–399
- Female sculptors, 415
- Female students
 - mathematical abilities of, 401
- Female underrepresentation, in sports, 264
- Feminine cultures, 425
- Femininity, 404
 - versus* masculinity, 425
- Feminist, 268
- Feminist movement, 464
- Feminist theory, 159
- Fight against poverty, 69
- Flow of information, 4
- Formalization, 142
- Freedom of expression, 443
- Freedom of religion and speech, 307
- Gender and culture
 - women leadership, 21–24
- Gender and politics
 - critical mass theory in, 79
- Gender congeniality, 25
- Gender congruency theory, 100
- Gender differences
 - in attitudes and online communications, 183–187
- Gender disparity, 292
- Gender diversity
 - in sports, 264–270
- Gender equality, 205, 465, 471
 - in sports, 264–270
- Gender equity

- for athletes, 264
 - law, 263
- Gender gap, political, 96, 97
- Gender incongruity theory, 31
- Gender pay
 - gap in sports, 292–293
- Gender stereotypes, 134, 206
 - in military, 314–316, 322–327
 - in military training, 322
 - of women, 472
- Girls' education, 465
- Glass ceiling, 7, 8, 138–140
- Glass cliff, 8, 138–140
- Glass elevator, 139
- Glass wall, 7, 8
- Global business women
 - leaders, 447–451
- Global political women leaders, 429–447
 - Asian, 439–442
 - European, 432–436
 - Latin American, 439–442
 - in Middle East, 443–444
 - in Soviet Union, 445–447
- Global technology women
 - leaders, 451–453
- Global women peace leaders, 455–458
- Global women sports leaders, 453–455
- Group cohesion, 19
- Group decision support
 - systems (GDSS), 164
- Hate crimes, 352
- High contact sports, 286–287
- Higher education, 399–404
 - sex discrimination in, 401
 - underrepresentation of women, 403
- High technology industries
 - CEOs, 165
- Impression management, 104–108
- Individual women's sports, 270–284
- Information and
 - communication technologies (ICT), 165
- Information sharing, 143
- Information technology (IT)
 - organizations
 - anonymity, 174–176
 - conceptualizations of, 166–167
 - empowerment, 177–179
 - gender differences in
 - attitudes and online communications, 183–187
 - internet culture, 198
 - invisible leadership, 193–197
 - labyrinth, 191–193
 - leadership, 168–172, 191–193
 - rapid proliferation, 165
 - self-disclosure, 176–177
 - speed and media richness, 172–174
 - virtual leader construct (VLC), 179–180
 - of virtual organizations, 172–179

- women leaders in, 180–183, 187–191
- Ingratiation, 105
- Intellectual freedom, 390
- Intimidation, 106
- Invisible leadership, 68, 193–197
- Job design, 144
- Laissez-faire leadership, 27, 195
- Laws against sex discrimination, 71
- Leader-member exchange theory, 17
- Leaders
 - accountability, 149–151
 - female political, stereotypes of, 109–114
 - gender differences in
 - evaluations of, 30–33
 - personality characteristics of, 462
 - reputation, 147–149
 - successful political career, 470
- Leadership
 - ability, 57
 - in church, 345
 - construction of, 208–210
 - context of business unit, 16
 - contextualizing, 10–14
 - cross-cultural, 423–429
 - cultural dimensions of, 427
 - culture, impact of, 423
 - development for women, 462, 478–482
 - development programs, 482–484
 - effective, 97, 98, 105
 - effectiveness relationships, 16
 - of family businesses, 447
 - flow of information, 4
 - gender congeniality of, 467
 - gender differences in, 24–26
 - global, 420–421
 - invisible, 68, 193–197
 - IT organizations, 168–172, 191–193
 - laissez-faire, 195
 - media, 204
 - models of, 462
 - moral, 68
 - moral and ethical standards, 327
 - organizational, 16
 - organizational successes and failures, 5
 - passive/laissez-faire, 68
 - personal, 15
 - and power, 97–102
 - in religious, 356–360
 - requirements in military, 322
 - scholars, 151
 - servant, 328
 - team, 16
 - theories of, 4
 - transactional, 4, 5, 327
 - transcultural facilitation, 429
 - transformational, 4, 5, 172, 209
 - two-dimensional model of, 4

- visionary, 5
- women, 6–10
- women's rise to political, 441
- Leadership labyrinth, 9
- Leadership roles
 - foreign policy, 81
 - of military commander, 319
- Leadership styles
 - agentic, 30
 - command-and-control, 29
 - component of, 149
 - of female and male
 - managers, 25
 - gender differences in, 26–30
 - in military, 327–328
 - people-oriented/
 - transformational, 25
 - relationship between gender,
 - 26
 - relationship-oriented/task-oriented, 336
 - task- vs relationship-oriented, 26
 - transformational, 25
- Leadership theory, 469
- Learning organization, 145
- Market segmentation, mass
 - media, 214–215
- Mass media
 - credibility and
 - trustworthiness of,
 - 213–214
 - female news anchors,
 - 218–222
 - female political candidates,
 - 222–223
 - genre, 212–213
 - market segmentation,
 - 214–215
 - media choice, 211–212
 - stereotyping in, 217–218
 - women business leaders in,
 - 223–224
 - women in television, 215–217
- Matrix organization, 144
- Media leadership, 204
- Media richness theory (MRT),
 - 173
- Military leadership, 318
- Military leadership styles,
 - 327–328
- Moral leadership, 68
- Multifactor Leadership
 - Questionnaire (MLQ),
 - 27
- Multilevel mass education
 - system, 402
- National culture, 425
- Network enhancing leadership
 - development, 482
- Occupational segregation, 21
- Organizational behavior, 15
- Organizational culture, 134,
 - 143, 427, 429
- Organizational leadership, 16
- Organizational relationships, 165
- Organizational structure and
 - design, 141–146
- Parliamentary system, 88
- Pay inequity, 192

- Personal leadership, 15
- Political acumen, 440
- Political behavior, women's
 - political leadership, 86
- Political campaigns, 94
- Political freedom, 430
- Political office
 - governmental structure of, 88–90
 - by women, 88
- Political power, 94
- Political rights, 443
- Political savvy leaders, 103–104
- Political systems
 - contextual characteristics of, 87–88
- Politics
 - economy and, 441
 - women in international, 446
- Portrayal, women in
 - media, 215–224, 247–249
- Postheroic leadership, 476
- Power in politics, 98
- Power on the Web, 177
- pre-Citizenship Law, 45
- Presidential campaign, 139
- Presidential systems, 89
- Print media, women's
 - leadership, 224–228
- Problem solving, 428
- Reform social structures, 382
- Religious freedom, 59
- Religious revolution, 42
- Reputation–performance
 - relationship, 149
- Rights to equal protection, 307
- Right to vote, 65
- Risk management, 428
- Role conflict, 194
- Romance of Leadership (RoL), 208
- Self-empowerment, 382
- Self-esteem, 334
- Self-goal setting, 317
- Self-leadership approach, 317
- Self-promotion, women's
 - political leaders, 108
- Servant leadership, 328
- Sex discrimination, 401
- Sex discrimination laws, 72
- Sexual assaults, 315, 326
- Sexual harassment, 222, 315, 323
- Sexual reinvention, 41
- Social movements, 464
- Social networks, 135, 136, 138, 203, 222
- Social relationships, 23
- Span of control, 142
- Spirituality movement, 382
- Spiritual leaders, 360–377
- Straight shooter, 146
- Strategic leadership, 120, 151
- Stratified systems theory, 17
- Supplication, 107
- SWOT analysis, 478
- Team leadership, 16
- Team sports, 285–286

- Terror management theory, 333–338
- Tokenism, 31
- Top management team (TMT), 120, 132, 133
- Transactional leadership, 4, 5, 327
 - behaviors, 344
- Transformational leaders, 476
- Transformational leadership, 4, 5, 172, 209
- Unemployment rates, 467
- U.S. civil rights, 438
- U.S. presidential election, 89
- Virtual leader construct (VLC), 179–180
- Virtual organizations, 172–179
- Visionary leaders, 151–152
- Visionary leadership, 5
- Visioning skills, womens
 - political leaders, 108–109
- Women business leaders
 - organizational changes, 137
- Women CEOs, 127–132
- Women directors, 124
- Women entrepreneurs
 - access capital, 155
 - challenge, 155–158
 - crowdfunding, 156
 - economic life, 158
 - motivation, 154
 - relationship between work and family, 157
- Women leaders
 - in antiquity, 39–52
 - in arts, 404–405
 - balance work and family, 403
 - careers in science and complete graduate training, 394
 - global business, 447–451
 - global Latin American, 439–442
 - global political, 429–447
 - global political African, 442–443
 - global political Asian, 436–439
 - global political European, 432–436
 - global technology, 451–453
 - global women peace, 455–458
 - global women sports, 453–455
 - in higher education, 399–404
 - in information technology (IT) organizations, 164, 180–183, 187–191
 - from middle ages to renaissance, 52–60
 - next generation of, 469
 - during 19th and 20th Century, 60–73
- Women-owned enterprises, 153
- Women rights, 348
- Women's equality, 139

- Women's leaders
 - church law/formal written procedures, 350
 - clergy rights for, 379
 - Islamic law, 348
 - law of karma, 350
 - in movies, 229–239
 - political and educational rights, 369
 - religious movement, 369
- Women's leadership, 6–10
 - access to sports participation, 268
 - in advertisement, 239–243
 - arts as context for, 405–418
 - on board of directors, 121–127
 - CEOs, 127–132
 - charisma and religious, 381–383
 - in combat, 328–332
 - construction of, 208–210
 - contemporary female science leaders, 394–399
 - contextual barriers and impediments, 138
 - contextual characteristics of, 210–215
 - in C-suite, 132–138
 - as entrepreneurs, 152–158
 - gender and culture, 21–24
 - gender stereotypes, in
 - military, 314–316, 322–327
 - glass ceiling, 138–140
 - glass cliff, 138–140
 - high-risk organizations, 140
 - individual characteristics
 - enhancing, 147
 - industry type, 146–147
 - information technology, 161–198
 - leader accountability, 149–151
 - leader reputation, 147–149
 - in media, 206–208
 - military as context for, 316–322
 - military conflict of, 305
 - military leadership styles, 327–328
 - in movies, 229–239
 - ordination of, 377–380
 - organizational structure, 141–146
 - organizations context for, 119–160
 - political skills, 148
 - portrayal of, 215–224, 247–249
 - print media, 224–228
 - religion and spirituality, 351–356
 - religious and spiritual leaders, 360–377
 - research, new directions for, 158–159
 - roles in top leadership, 8
 - in science throughout history, 388–394
 - social networks, 135
 - success in, 6
 - succession planning, 137
 - in television, 215–217

- terror management theory, 333–338
- Title IX, 261–264
- in video games, 243–246
- vision, 151–152
- world's major religions, 346–351
- Women's movement, 134, 267
- Women's participation, in politics, 429
- Women's political leadership
 - and causes female politicians support, 91–92
 - crisis role of, 91
 - critical mass theory, 79
 - female ideologies, 91–92
 - human resource frame, 86
 - impression management, 104–108
 - for party leadership roles, 81
 - political and structural frame, 86
 - political behavior, 85
 - political campaigns, 94
 - political office, governmental structure of, 88–90
 - political savvy, 103–104
 - political skills and competencies, 102
 - political systems, contextual characteristics of, 87–88
 - political theory, 85–87
 - politics, reasons for, 94–97
 - and power, 97–102
 - self-promotion, 108
- stereotypes of, 109–114
- symbolic frame, 87
- visioning skills, 108–109
- Women's rights
 - activists, 458
 - and freedom, 433
 - leader and social activist, 62
 - organization, 61
 - to sexually refuse, 63
- Women's sports
 - biological differences to patriarchal ideology in, 287–293
 - dynamic social space, 291
 - female athletic directors, 298–300
 - female coaches as sports leaders, 293–298
 - fencing, 284
 - gender equality and diversity in, 264–270
 - gender pay gap in, 292–293
 - golf, 281–282
 - gymnastics, 276–280
 - high contact, 286–287
 - individual, 270–284
 - leadership in, 256–264
 - pay gap, 292
 - synchronized skating, 285–286
 - team sports, 285–286
 - tennis, 271–276
 - track and field, 282–284
- Work–family conflict, 134
- Workplace chaplaincy, 353
- Youth culture, 461