

Index

- ACC. See Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC)
- AFL. See Australian Football League (AFL); Australian Rules football (AFL)
- African National Congress (ANC), 279
- Asian Football Championship, 8
- Asian sport development, 7–16
- Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), 404
- Australian Football League (AFL), 35
- Australian Institute of Sport (AIS), 29, 35
- Australian Rules football (AFL), 42
- Australian sport industry
  - Australian Formula One Grand Prix, 40–41
  - developmental trends and issues
    - demographic changes, 56–57
    - digital media, 52–54
    - sport choices, 56–57
    - sports betting, 55–56
    - technology, 54–55
- 2013 Football Codes’ Attendance, 42
- historical development, 28–30
- Melbourne Cup, 43–44
- Modern Australian Sport System, 31
- present-day Australian sport industry
  - attendance, 42
  - Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC), 50
  - in Australian society, 37–42
  - broadcasting, 47–49
  - commercial sector, 37
  - commercial sports, 47–52
  - government, 30–35
  - International Marketing Reports (IMR), 50
  - participation, 44–46

- professional sport leagues, 35–36
  - sponsorship, 50–52
  - T20, cricket, 46–47
- Australian Sports Commission (ASC), 29–34
- Beijing Organizing Committee for the Olympic Games (BOCOG), 9
- Brazilian Clubs Confederation, 69
- Brazilian Confederation of Football, 70
- Brazilian Constitution of 1988, 68
- Brazilian Olympic Committee, 69
- Brazilian Paralympic Committee, 69
- Brazil sports industry
  - beliefs and conflicts, legacy of sports mega-events, 81–87
  - organization, 68–70
    - football organization, 70–72
    - volleyball organization, 72–75
  - sport events, 75–81
- Canadian Association for the Advancement of Women and Sport (CAAWS), 109
- Canadian Olympic Committee (COC), 108
- Canadian sport industry
  - Athlete Assistance Program (AAP), 111–113
  - Canadian Interuniversity Sport (CIS), 125–128
  - developmental trends and challenges, 128–131
  - early influences of, 97–102
  - governance, 107–109
  - hosting program, 110–111
  - important sporting moments, 102–107
  - policies, 113–119
  - professional sports, 128
  - sport organizations
    - AthletesCAN, 124
    - Canada games, 123–124
    - Canadian Paralympic Committee (CPC), 122–123
    - Own the Podium (OTP), 120–122
    - Sport Matters Group (SMG), 125
  - sport support program, 111
- Chinese sport industry
  - connotation of, 136
  - developmental stages of, 138–140
    - developmental phase, 139–140
    - emerging phase, 138–139
    - exploratory phase, 139
  - extensions of, 136–138
  - improvement of, 143

- labor productivity in, 142–143
- markets in sport industry, 152–153
- rapid growing rate of, 141–142
- scale of sport industry, 141
- sport leisure and fitness, 144–150
- sport tourism, 150–152
- Coaching Association of Canada (CAC), 108
- COC. See Canadian Olympic Committee (COC)
- Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS), 401
- Commonwealth Games, 8
- Comparative analyses
  - contemporary challenges and issues, 495–502
  - developmental characteristics, 485–494
  - recent historical development, 462–471
  - sport industry, current state of, 472–485
  - strength, and highlights, 485–494
  - trends of development and advancement, 502–509
- English Premier League (EPL), 12
- Fédération Internationale de Football Association (FIFA) World Cup, 8, 67, 76
- Federation of International Football Associations (FIFA), 278
- FIFA World Cup in 2002, 211
- Frontier Economics, 37
- German sport industry
  - current state of being, 169–170
  - economic scope and magnitude, 176–179
  - facilities, 174–175
  - governance, 173
  - major policies, 174
  - sport programs, 175–176
  - structure, 170–172
- developmental
  - characteristics
  - contemporary challenges, 192–194
  - gambling and lottery, 187–188
  - health and fitness industry, 184–185
  - issues of elite sports, 192–194
  - sponsorship industry, 190–191
  - sport event industry, 188–189
  - sporting goods industry, 186
  - team sport industry, 180–184
  - voluntary sport clubs, 192

- developmental trends and outlook
  - nonprofit sector, 195
  - public sector, 194
- for-profit sector
  - basketball, 195–196
  - fitness, 197
  - handball, 196–197
  - ice hockey, 196
  - soccer, 195
  - sporting goods, 198
  - team sport industry, 195–198
- history, 166–169
- Globalized sport market place, 1–7
- “Green Olympics” concept, 9
- Gross domestic product (GDP), 20, 142, 346–347
- Gross national product (GNP), 66
- Instituto Brasileiro de Geografia e Estatística (IBGE), 65
- International Federations (IFs), 108
- International Marketing Reports (IMR), 50, 51
- International Olympic Committee (IOC), 278
- Japanese sport industry
  - academic activities around sport industry, 234–236
  - development of, 207–208
  - magnitude of, 209–211
- participation sports in, 211–221
- spectator sports in, 221–228
- sport media in, 228–233
- sport tourism in, 233–234
- Korean sport market
  - challenges and issues for
    - consumer’s perspective, 374–375
    - macro-environmental perspective, 372–373
    - supplier’s perspective, 375–377
- developmental stages of
  - 1990s, market expansion, 344
  - 1980s, market formation, 343
  - 2000s, market globalization, 344–345
  - 2010s, Market Restructuring, 345–346
  - 1960s–1970s, pre-industrialized, 342–343
- SMVN, 357–359
  - amateur sport event market, 363–366
  - participant sport event market, 366–368
  - participant sport non-event market, 368–371

- professional sport event market, 359–363
  - understanding the, 346–357
- Leading sport forces, 16–22
- Mass Democratic Movement (MDM), 279
- Melbourne Cricket Ground (MCG), 39
- Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology (MEXT), 212–213
- Multi-sport service organizations (MSOs), 108
- Nagano Winter Olympic Games in 1998, 7
- National Basketball Association (NBA), 3
- National League of Professional Baseball Clubs, 393–394
- National Olympic Committee of South Africa (NOCSA), 279
- National Rugby League (NRL), 35
- National Sport Congress (NSC), 279
- National sport organizations (NSOs), 99
- Non-Aligned Nations, 14
- Olympic Council of Asia (OCA), 8, 10
- Olympic Games, 8
  - Reform and Openness Policy*, Chinese sport industry, 136
- Russian sport industry
  - developmental stages of, 240–241
  - early period, 241
  - formation period, 241–242
  - framework of
    - Federal programs, 250–251
    - governing of, 248–250
    - legislative regulation, 247–248
    - professional athletes market, 254–255
    - russian sport leagues and sport clubs, 255–256
    - sporting goods, 252–254
    - word sport events influence, 256–259
  - history, 240–241
  - issues of, 277–278
  - modern period, 244–245
  - Olympic and Paralympic Games Sochi 2014, 260–263
  - post-modern period, 245–247
  - Soviet period, 242–244
  - trends of development and advancement, 264–272
  - domestic companies, 267–268
  - Federal financial support, 266–267
  - fitness club or sport complex, 270–271

- foreign companies, 267
- professionalization of, 269
- sport facilities
  - construction
  - industry, 268
- sport industry
  - enterprises, 268–269
- sporting goods retail, 270
- sports high tech, 271–272
- sports nutrition
  - distribution and retail, 270
- SANOC. See South African National Olympic Committee (SANOC)
- SANROC. See South African Non-Racial Olympic Committee in 1963 (SANROC)
- Seoul Summer Olympic Games in 1988, 7
- SMVN. See Sport market value network (SMVN)
- Social Exclusion Unit (SEU), 434
- South African Council of Sport (SACOS), 279
- South African National Olympic Committee (SANOC), 278
- South African Non-Racial Olympic Committee in 1963 (SANROC), 278
- South African sport industry
  - being in, 281–295
    - Bloemfontein, 309–310
    - Cape Town, 306–307
    - Durban, 308–309
    - financing sport in, 303
    - Golf courses, 313–315
    - Johannesburg, 303–305
    - Nelspruit, 310–311
    - Polokwane, 310
    - Port Elizabeth, 309
    - Pretoria, 305–306
    - Rustenberg, 310
    - social and economic value, 281–291
    - sport participation trends, 291–295
    - sport policy and governance, 295–303
    - Sport precincts, 311–312
  - contemporary challenges and issues, 323–327
  - developmental
    - characteristics
    - alignment with international protocols, 315–317
    - sport coaching, 322–323
    - sport training and capacity-building programs, 317–321
    - transformation, 321–322
  - developmental stages, 278–280

- facilities and programs, 303–315
- financing sport in, 303
- governance in, 296–303
- history, 278–280
- sport policy, 296–303
- trends of development and advancement
  - 2010 FIFA World Cup™ Research Agenda, 327–330
  - SEIM, 330–333
  - sport tourism strategy, 334
- Southeastern Conference (SEC), 404
- Sport Funding and Accountability Framework (SFAF), 108
- Sport market value network (SMVN), 357–359.
  - See also* Korean sport market
- amateur sport event market, 363–366
- characteristics of, 357
- concept of, 348–351
- participant sport event market, 366–368
- participant sport non-event market, 368–371
- professional sport event market, 359–363
- structure of, 351–357
- Sport tourism
  - Chinese sport industry, 150–152
  - Japanese sport industry, 233–234
  - South African sport industry, 334
  - Tokyo Olympic Games, 8
  - UK sport industry
    - British sports industry, 455–457
    - historical development, 430–435
    - London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games, 446–451
    - national framework for community sport, 435–437
    - in Northern Ireland, 442–443
    - and other agencies, 440–442
    - professional sports, 451–455
    - role of government, 438–440
    - in Scotland, 444–445
    - in Wales, 445–446
  - US sport industry
    - contemporary challenges and issues in, 419–421
    - current state of, 403–419
    - historical development, 385–390
      - broadcasting developments, 400–403
      - legal or social developments, 395–397
    - National Protection of Baseball, 391–395

sports licensing and sport product
manufacturing,
397–400
in 20th Century,
390–391

Volleyball International
Federation (FIVB), 72
World Anti-Doping Association
(WADA), 108
World Aquatic Championship, 8
World Bank, 66