

Index

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Aadhaar
 - system, 25–26, 79–80, 120–121, 190–191
 - technology, 23, 68, 114
- Action research, 73
 - for deployment management, 87
- Actor-Network Theory (ANT), 116–119, 168
- Agriculture stacks, 190
- Algorithms, 57, 64–67
 - algorithmic decision-making, 65–67
 - algorithmic objectives, 65
 - algorithmic self, 64
- Alienation, 2, 138–144, 165
- Anthropomorphic properties, 61
- Anti-capitalist license, 150
- Apathy, 12, 69
- Appropriate technology, 28–29, 101, 127, 152–153
- Arab Spring, 116
- Artificial Intelligence (AI), 38, 64, 74–76
 - need for deployment management for, 87–88
- Asilomar conference, 46
- Aspirations, 17, 69, 140
- Associational power, 107–108, 110, 152
- Atomized sub-tasks, 22–23, 74–76, 142
- Authoritarianism, 17
- Avaaj Otalo, 77
- Behaviour modulation, 62–63
- Biases
 - in data-driven algorithms, 65–66
 - in inclusion and exclusion, 93–94
- Biometrics, 79
- Blockchains, 150
- Capabilities approach, 45, 48
- Capitalism, 14, 17, 30, 135–136, 164
- CGNet Swara, 77
- Chatbots, 61
- Civil society groups, 153
- Closed strategic action, 162
- Co-determination, 107, 148
- Collectivisation, 23, 148
- Collectivism, 147–149
- Commons-based management, 152
- Communicative action, 162
- Communitization, 91
- Community
 - embeddedness, 91–92
 - media, 88–89, 176–180
 - radio, 176
- COMPAS study, 66
- Competition, 25, 52, 112, 157
 - debt-fueled consumption, 16
 - economization of society, 19
 - formalization, 16, 24, 35, 74–76
 - inequality, 5, 13, 15–16, 19–20, 110, 139, 150, 153, 173, 188, 192
 - monopoly capitalism, 21
 - neoliberal capitalism, 13, 148
 - surplus value, 3, 15
 - worker control, 23
- Consequentialism, 41
- Constitutive freedoms, 44
- Contemporary problems, 9
 - answers, 29–32
 - apathy, 9–12
 - environmental technologies, 18–19
 - social systems, 12–18

- society, 19–21
- technology, 21–27
- Conversation theory, 167–169
- Copyrights, 136, 149
- Corporate social responsibilities (CSR), 45
- COVID-19
 - lockdown, 11, 14–15, 178
 - migrant workers, 11, 14
 - pandemic, 25
 - vaccination scheduling, 187
- Critical design, 83
- Critical theory, 49
- Crowd-sourced indicators, 95
- Cybernetics, 67, 117, 126, 162
- Data, 62–64
- Datafication, 64–65
- Decision function, 119
- Definitions, Issues, Options, Decisions, and Explanations (DIODE), 47–48
- Degenerative outcome, 24
- Deliberation
 - building blocks for, 167
 - community media, 176–180
 - conversation theory, 167–169
 - evidence from media
 - communications research, 174–176
 - federated platforms, 171–172
 - information evolution and usefulness, 169–171
 - learning from small successes, 172–174
 - to public action, 174
- Deliberative democracy, 162
- Democracy, 51–52, 161, 164, 184
 - laws, 180
 - media effects, 175
 - public action, 176
- Democratic countries, 13
- Democratic systems, 51
- Demonetization, 11, 24
- Deontological ethics, 40, 41
- Deployment management, 58, 69–72, 84
 - action research for, 87
 - for artificial intelligence, 87–88
- Design, 83, 85
 - action research for deployment management, 87
 - managing socio-technical interface, 97–101
 - methods, 57
 - Mobile Vaani, 88–97
 - need for deployment management for artificial intelligence, 87–88
 - shortcomings of ethics by design approaches, 85–87
- Diaspora, 150
- Differential privacy, 62
- Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA), 136
- Digital public good platforms, 25–26
- Digital Rights Management (DRM), 136
- Discretization, 64
- Docile bodies, 114
- Economic rationality, 139
- Editorial credibility, 179
- Education, 191–192
- Empathy, 69
- Empire, 16
- Environmental technologies, 18–19
- Equality, 65
- Equity, 65
- Ethical consistency test for technologies, 76
 - Aadhaar system, 79–80
 - Facebook, 78–79
 - Mobile Vaani, 77–78
- Ethical definition, 38
- Ethical Design Toolkit, 43
- Ethical framework to examine technologies, 59
 - algorithms, 64–67
 - data and privacy, 62–64

- managing design, 69–70
- other frameworks for technology
 - ethics, 73–74
 - socio-technical interface, 70–72
 - system design, 67–69
 - theory of change, 59–60
 - user interfaces, 60–61
- Ethical theories, 39–42
 - Amartya Sen and John Rawls, 6, 12–13, 39–40, 48
- ETHICS methodology, 47, 67
- Ethics of informatization, 74–76
- Ethics-based foundations, 57
 - constituent design elements and management practices, 56
 - framework, 55
- Ethics-based methods
 - ambiguities through, 38
 - consequentialist nature of social good, 44–48
 - social good in, 39–44
- Ethics-based terminology, 39–44
- Ethos, 147
- Exclusion, 70
- Exploitation, 76

- Face recognition algorithms, 66
- Facebook, 3, 57, 76, 78–79, 100–101, 150
- Fair washing, 135
- Federated platforms, 98, 171–172
- Financial technology (fintech), 24
- Fragmented organizational structures, 133
- Free and Opensource Software movement (FOSS movement), 151, 190
- Free Software movement, 143
- Full-fledged participatory design process, 86

- GDPR, 62
- Gig-economy platforms, 135
- Github, 150
- Global North, 14
- Global South, 14, 15, 16
- Google, 131
- Google Alerts, 172
- Googlearchy, 65
- Gram Vaani team, 178, 187–189
- Ground-up discussions, 179

- Hackathons, 136
- Hacker ethic, 143
- Hippocratic license, 150
- Homomorphic encryption, 62
- Human access points (HAPs), 91
- Human-in-the-loop methods, 66–68
- Humanism, 48
 - Marx's concept of, 2, 138
- Humanists, 141, 146
- Hypothetical mobile phone-based technology project, 42

- Immutable mobiles, 117
- Inclusion, 70
- Incursion, 63
- Independent Media Centres (IMCs), 172
- India Digital Ecosystem of Agriculture (IDEA), 190
- India Stack, 136
- Information ethics, 153
- Information evolution and usefulness, 169–171
- Information personalization, 63
- Informatization, ethics of, 74–76
- Institutional credibility, 95–97
- Institutional power, 107–108, 110, 148
- Instrumental freedoms, 44
- Instrumental values, 44
- Intellectual property (IP), 149
- Interaction of Actors Theory (IAT), 168
- Interactive voice response systems (IVR systems), 77, 89
- Internal accountability, 92–93
- Internal feedback processes, 98
- Internal grievances, 98
- Internet of Things (IoT), 126

- Khabar Lahariya, 89
 Know Your Customer (KYC), 24
 Knowledge logic, 65

 Latent ambiguities, 136
 Logical formalism, 75
 Low-elevation road bridges, 67
 Lucas Plan of 1976, 150–151

 Machine ethics, 39–40
 Machine learning algorithms, 65
 Management practices, 57–58
 Marx's concept of humanism, 2,
 48–49, 138
 Mechanical-individual (m-individual),
 167
 Media, 122
 bias, 172
 broken mediums for participatory communication, 163–167
 and deliberation, 161
 evidence from media
 communications research,
 174–176
 need for participatory communication, 161–163
 pluralism, 165
 Medical ethics, 135
 Meta-social good projects, 50, 51, 161,
 189
 Meta-social good technologies, 58
 #MeToo, 115
 Microfinance, 36–38
 Microfinance Institutions (MFIs), 37
 Mobile Vaani (MV), 76–78, 83, 114, 150, 173
 background about, 88–90
 socio-technical interface, 90–97
 Monopoly capitalism, 21
 Moral buffer, 65
 Morality, 162, 183

 National Digital Health Blueprint, 25
 Neoliberalism, 13, 148
 Netmap, 128
 Network power, 115

 Network-making power, 115
 Networked power, 115
 Networking power, 115
 NewsCube, 172
 Non-coercive production, 14
 Non-violent license, 150
 Norm shaping, 60–61
 Nudging, 60

 Obligatory Points of Passage (OPP), 117
 Observational control, 114
 Omlet, 150
 Open societies, 165
 Open strategic action, 162
 Organic intellectuals, 140, 146, 183

 Packaged intervention, 35
 Paradigms, 7, 32, 185
 Participatory communication broken mediums for, 163–167 need for, 161–163
 systems, 184–185
 Participatory design (PD), 85
 Participatory methods, 146
 Patents, 149
 Peer Production License, 151
 Personalization, 63
 Platform cooperatives, 111–112, 150
 Plurality, 77, 161
 Political economy of technology,
 133–136
 Post-colonial considerations, 83
 Poverty, 12–13
 Power, 104
 imbalance, 85
 infrastructures, 113–116 levels, 105–107
 modelling power relationships, 116–128
 overcoming power differentials,
 107–108
 power-based equality, 103, 184 and social good, 108–113 types, 105
 Power elite, 110, 136
 Power-over, 105, 108–109, 111, 115

- Power-to, 105, 108–109
- Power-with, 105, 108, 110–112
- Power-within, 105, 108, 112, 119
- Powercube modelling framework, 127–128
- Price of Inequality, The, 14
- Privacy, 62–64
- Proportionality tests, 62
- Psychological-individual (p-individual), 167
- Public sphere, 52, 163–165
 - collective action, 159
 - community media, 176–180
 - deliberation, 174–176
 - democracy, 167
 - diversity, 170
 - federated network, 172
 - public action, 174–176
 - social accountability, 176
 - social media, 180
 - structural transformation, 163
 - technologists and users, 180–181
- Qualitative auditing mechanisms, 115
- Quantitative auditing mechanisms, 115
- Quora, 100
- Rawlsian analysis, 42, 44–45, 85
- Recombinant DNA, 46
- Reddit, 72, 100–101
- Rediscovering Lost Values (J. King M. 1954), 183
- Regulatory gaps, 22, 52, 136–137
- Resistance, 138–144
- Responsibility, 134
- Responsible Research and Innovation (RRI), 72
- Revolutionary movements, need for, 154–156
- Rights-based approach, 49
- Robotics, 61
- Russell-Einstein Manifesto, 46
- Sampling bias, 65–66
- Sangeet Swara, 77
- Scaffolding algorithms, 66–67
- Self Help Group (SHG), 94
- Sen's concept of development, 44
- Slashdot, 100
- Social credibility, 95–97
- Social Development Goals (SDG), 34–35, 48, 109, 177
- Social good, 33, 103, 184
 - ambiguity, 33–36
 - choosing values, 48–53
 - consequentialist, 44–48
 - democracy, 36, 52
 - ethics based methods, 38
 - freedoms, 43
 - future of technology for, 157–159
 - microfinance, 36–38
 - power and, 108–113
 - projects, 55
 - purposive, 46, 125
 - resolving ambiguities through
 - ethics-based methods, 38–48
 - transformation, 53
- Social Impact Statements (SIS), 157
- Social media, 100, 122–123, 166–167
- Social protection, 15–16, 68, 110, 157, 178, 189–190
- Social relationships, 2, 48–49, 138–139
- Social systems, 12–19
- Societal learning, 184
- Societal participation, 52, 161
 - building blocks for deliberation, 167–174
 - deliberation to public action, 174–180
 - media and deliberation, 161–167
- Societal platforms, 25
- Societal power, 107–108
- Society, 19–21
- Socio-technical interface, 70–72, 84
 - managing, 97–101
 - Mobile Vaani, 90–97
- Software Development Impact Statements (SoDIS), 72
- Startup toolkits, 136
- Status quo, 145–156

- Stereotype bias, 66
- Structural power, 107–108, 110, 147
- Structural violence, 110
- Structures and ideologies
 - alienation and resistance, 138–144
 - differentiated values and priorities, 132–133
 - fragmented organizational structures, 133
 - political economy of technology, 133–136
 - regulatory gaps, 136–137
- Subaltern, 69*n*1
 - approaches, 83
- Surveillance, 62
- System design, 57, 67–69, 116–128
- Systematic bias, 66
- Systemic transformation, 52, 58, 128
- Systems thinking, 67, 117–119, 191

- Taylorism, 21, 139
- Technologists, 58, 131, 143–144, 145–147
- Technology/technologies, 3, 21–27, 58, 104, 114, 145
 - as actant, 126–128
 - addressing gaps in technology literacy, 99
 - ethical framework, 55
 - literacy and access, 90–91
 - other frameworks for technology ethics, 73–74
 - political economy, 135
 - responsibility of providers, 83
 - stacks, 190
- Terminal values, 44, 45
- Theory of Change (ToC), 56–57, 59–60
- Theory of firm, 148
- Tools for conviviality, 29
- Trade unionism, 148
- Traditional intellectuals, 141
- Transformative social innovation theory, 58, 128
- Transparency technologies, 150
- Twitter, 114

- Uber, 57, 68
- Usage norms, 94–95
- User interfaces, 60–61
 - design, 56

- Value sensitive design (VSD), 43, 86
- Veil of ignorance, 85, 113
- Venture communism, 151
- Video Volunteers, 89
- Virtual agents, 61
- Volunteers, 122, 178

- Welfare schemes, 121–122
- Whatsapp, 101
- Whole Earth Catalog, 143
- Wikipedia, 100, 143, 150
- Workers' inquiry method, 140–142
- Workplaces, 133, 148